West Georgia College . . . an average Southern state college nestled in the Georgia red clay of Carroll County . . . Populated with a motley assortment of human beings, a strange gathering of College Joes and Greeks and freaks and even a scattering of intellectuals. Some following the preachings of Billy Graham and worshipping Mom, the flag, apple pie, and George Wallace, others following the raised fists of Huey Newton and Gloria Steinem and the gentle preachings of Joan Baez and the brothers Berrigan. Some studying a little, an occasional glance into a textbook over after-supper beer, a few diligently spending Saturday afternoons and Sunday evenings in the sanctity of the library, carefully researching matters of great or little importance. A lot of average Joes from small Georgia towns and Suzy Sororities from Atlanta. All human beings, reaching out or fearing to, all searching for something known or unknown, feeling afraid or confident in the West Georgia microcosm.

It's A Dog's World.

The "suitcase college" syndrome takes effect each weekend as soon as that last class is over—or even sooner.

Corvettes blaze off in a cloud of dust as thoughts turn to wild nights in Atlanta or wild nights in Ellijay, Ga. The campus is left deserted with only a few stranded individuals occupying nearly empty dorms. With Carrollton as dead as dry leaves, those who remain have been heard to curse wildly, eyes rolling, and vow never again to be stranded on the desert island of the West Georgia campus on the weekend.

On the positive side, perhaps the beleaguered campus profits from a much-needed respite from the collegiate rat race . . .

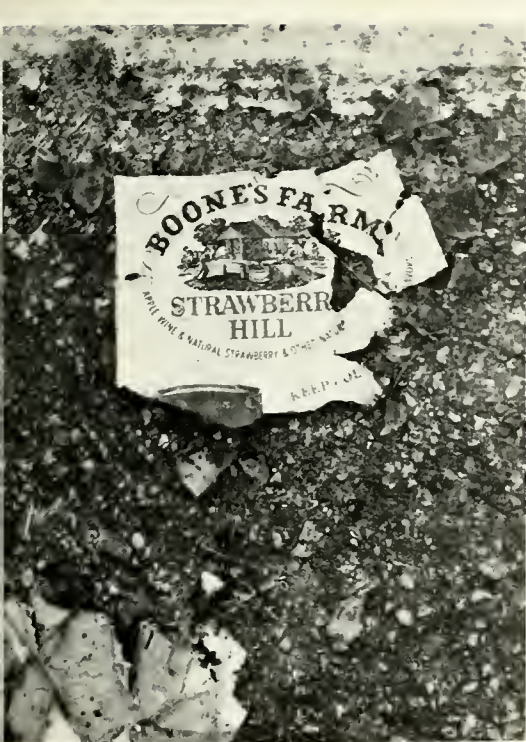

The fall came, crisp and exciting. The air was full of tensions as many realized the time of innocence was ending. The resulting search often leading to frustration as the obstacles and the contradictions become apparent . . . symbols that don't mean what they should, institutions that have become inflexible and inadequate, human problems of loneliness and isolation, human frailties of intolerance, apathy, fear . . .

"Too many mountains and not enough stairs to climb,
Too many churches and not enough truth,
Too many people and not enough eyes to see,
Too many lives to lead and not enough time."

from "Undone"

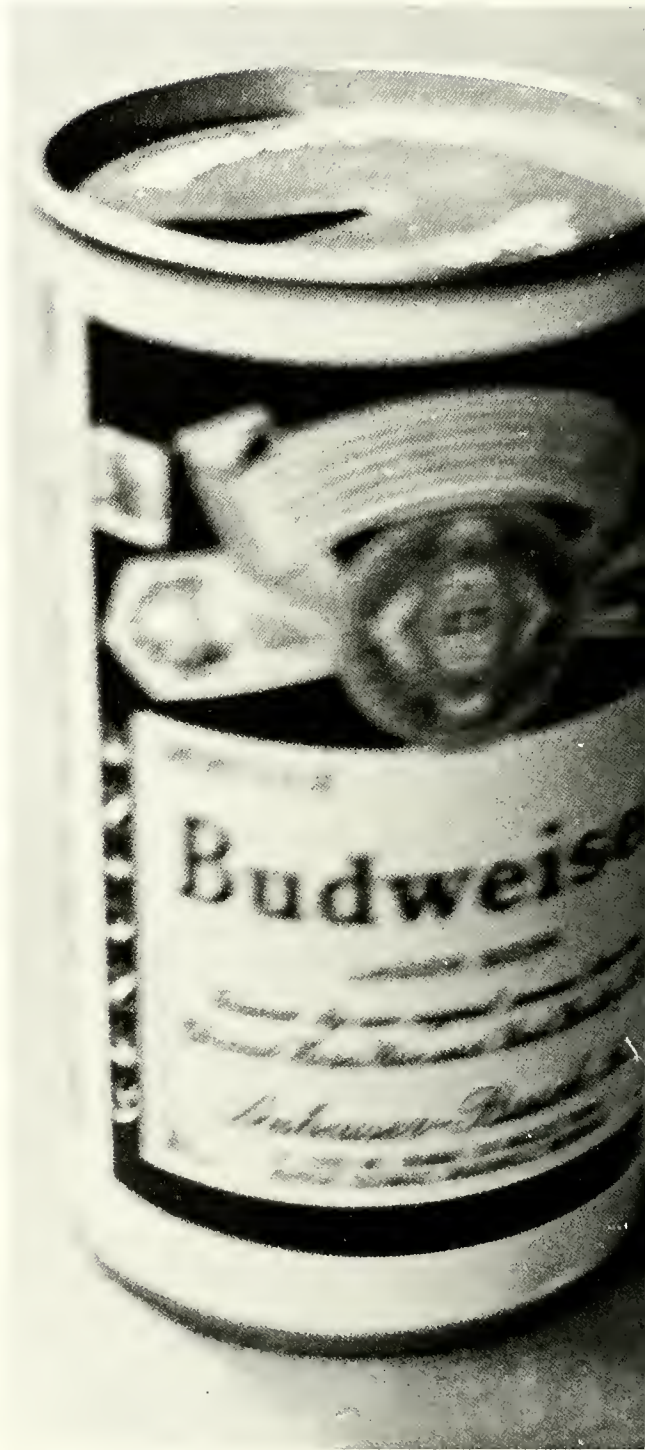

"Let's 'analyze' the situation!"

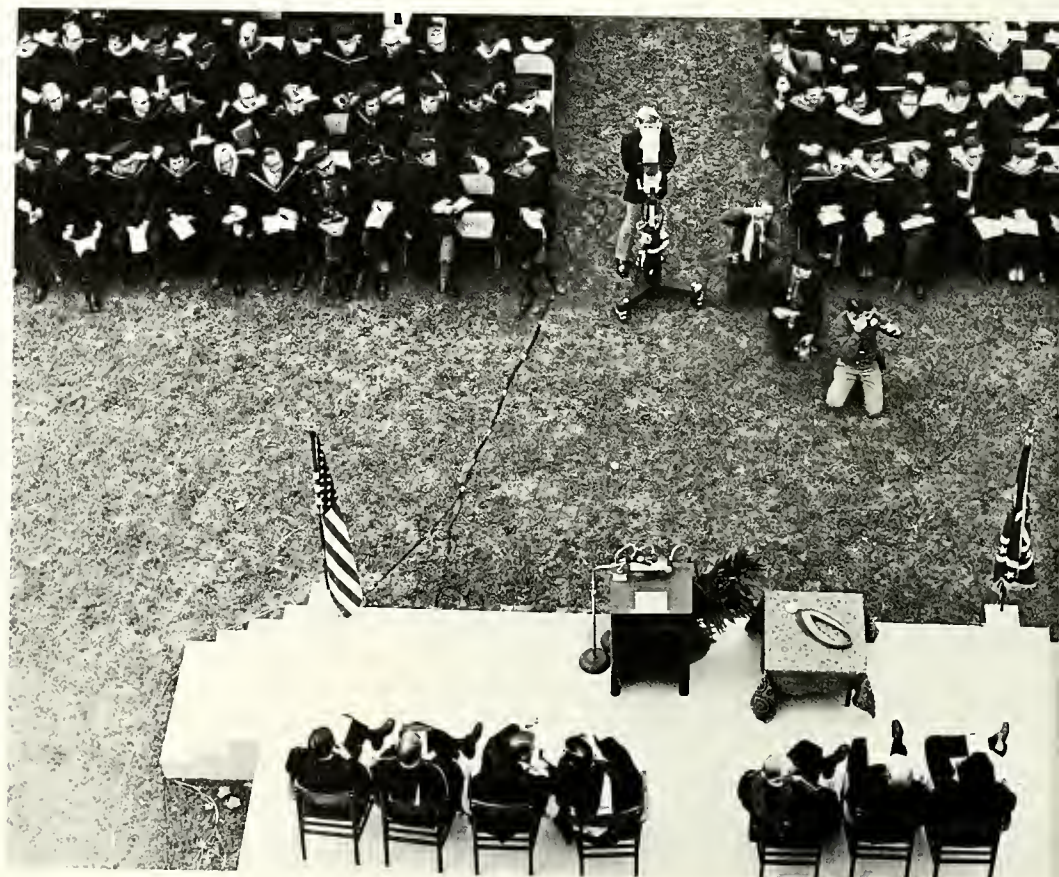

The basic humanity shows through in the faces of individuals, people who defy categories simply because they are individuals and more or less unique. People who scream involvement: the byword of the 70's. All we ask is why war, pollution, and discrimination still exist . . . And yet there is unity in the music, in the styles of hair and dress, in the enjoyment of sex and booze.

Pomp and circumstance, and $5,000 to make it official that Ward B. Pafford is President of West Georgia College. Cameras click and professors look adequately ridiculous in clergy-like robes to mark the momentous occasion. Students, disaffected to say the least, head for parts unknown, having been given a day off to enjoy the fun and games of the Inauguration.

A new infirmary, costing no telling how many thousands, is established for the express purpose of distributing mass doses of aspirin and coricidin.

Meanwhile, back at the Ivory Tower, funds are slashed for salaries, travel, library books, and student assistants. What was that about priorities?

GREEK WEEK

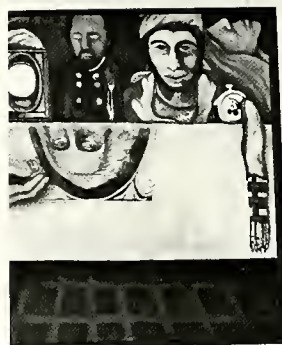

The Greeks at WGC participate in the activities that are put aside for them during Greek Week. IFC and Panhellenic work hard to put together a few days that the school as well as the Greeks can enjoy. Outdoor concerts and a carnival were opened to the school and the Chariot race and the outdoor concert at the Lambda Chi house were for the Greeks to enjoy. To climax the annual award banquet was held and recognized outstanding individuals and organizations for outstanding merit through out the year.

FINE ARTS WEEK

Not everything is rock and folk at WGC. Once a year West Georgia students enjoy the change of pace "Fine Arts Week." The fine talent of the students and the instructors of WGC is demonstrated to the public during this week. Through concerts, recitals, and art displays the people that are not familiar with the art department can see the extraordinary talent that West Georgia can boast.

Those who participated in the week felt relaxed and enlightened, those who missed the fine performances let a great deal of pleasure slip by their hands.

SPRING FLING

Spring and Spring Fling came again this year as always; students congregated outside to hear rock bands and enjoy the welcomed warm weather. Monday through Saturday were highlighted with concerts, talent shows, a soap box derby, and a dinner on the grounds. (Not to mention WGC's first Football championship.) There was plenty to do and everybody seemed to have a good time.

Everybody welcomed spring and the season for spring fever.

SPORTS

BASKETBALL 1972

West Georgia won! These three words pretty well sum up Braves basketball 1972. Forging a fantastic 28-6 season record which included the capture of the District 25 Tournament for the first time ever for West Georgia and also an initial trip to the national NAIA Tournament in Kansas City, Missouri was all part of the achievements made by this best-ever basketball team at this institution.

After posting a respectable 14-10 mark during the 1971 season, Coach Roger Kaiser teamed with new assistant Coach Jerry Reynolds to mold a highly talented team of junior college transfers and experienced returnees that reached the summit of West Georgia College athletic accomplishments.

Although the conference title again evaded the hardwood pounder's grasp, so many other goals were grabbed. For the first time in eight years, a West Georgia basketball squad defeated Valdosta, the perennial GIAC champ. Another first was the Braves two big victories in the district tournament that crowned them District 25 Champs and sent them on their way to Kansas City and the 1972 national NAIA tourney.

In the initial national's bid, the West Georgians knocked off Northwest Iowa State 73-69 in an overtime thriller that saw West Georgia's All-American candidate Charlie Hamilton score 24 points and capture 23 rebounds.

In the second round of the nationals, West Georgia faced one of the best all-time small college basketball teams ever assembled, and for the first fifteen minutes played on even terms with their Kentucky State opponent. Gradually the Kentucky State squad pulled away and rolled on to a 112-83 decision. Three nights later it was Kentucky State who went on to seize their third consecutive national title. Kentucky State was led by the offensive prowess of all-time collegiate scoring leader Travis Grant who tallied 60 points the first night and 43 points against the Braves in the second round of the tourney.

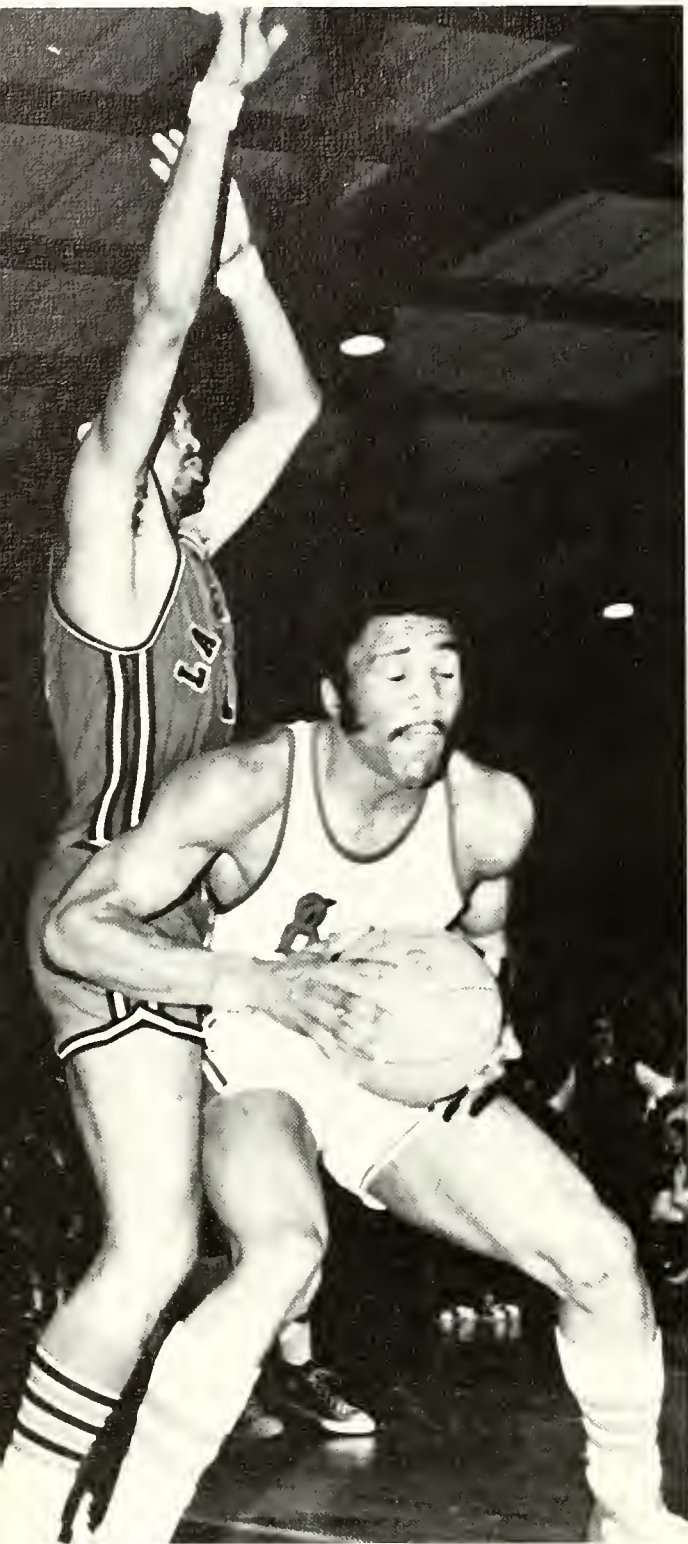

Also significant of this year's team was that they virtually rewrote the record book of years gone by. Besides winning more games than any other West Georgia basketball squad ever, the Braves set 39 new team and individual marks. The previous record for most points in a single game—123 against Piedmont College, most steals in a game—33 against Piedmont, and most steals during a season by an individual team member—120 by guard Greg Allen.

One thing certain about the Braves squad is that their winning ways had a tremendous effect on West Georgia College. Never before had standing-room-only crowds jammed the gym with such an exuberant enthusiasm. Part of this fervor was generated by the simple fact that West Georgia was winning for a change, but perhaps more by the way in which they won. They won via a running-gunning offense, a fierce defense, and an undying desire. Each player played his part and played it well.

From the first stunning steal of Greg Allen to the last aggressive rebound by Charlie Hamilton the West Georgia Braves were a team to watch and a team to forever respect as one of the best anywhere, because they could do one thing so well—they could win.

MEN'S INTRAMURAL FOOTBALL

In Desperate Quest . . .

Intramural Football—1971

Fierce competition arose in the men's intramural football association this year. Most of the early contests were for mere fun, but towards the end of the season, huge crowds covered the 'football hill' as the top contenders in each league fought for the coveted Men's Intramural Football championship.

In the fraternity league, Lambda Chi rose to the top of the pack but only after a bold struggle with Kappa Sigma and Pi Kappa Alpha. In the independent football picture, the Farm and the Batracks were kingpins of their respective leagues. A playoff between these two independent winners saw the Farm capture a narrow 17-6 decision.

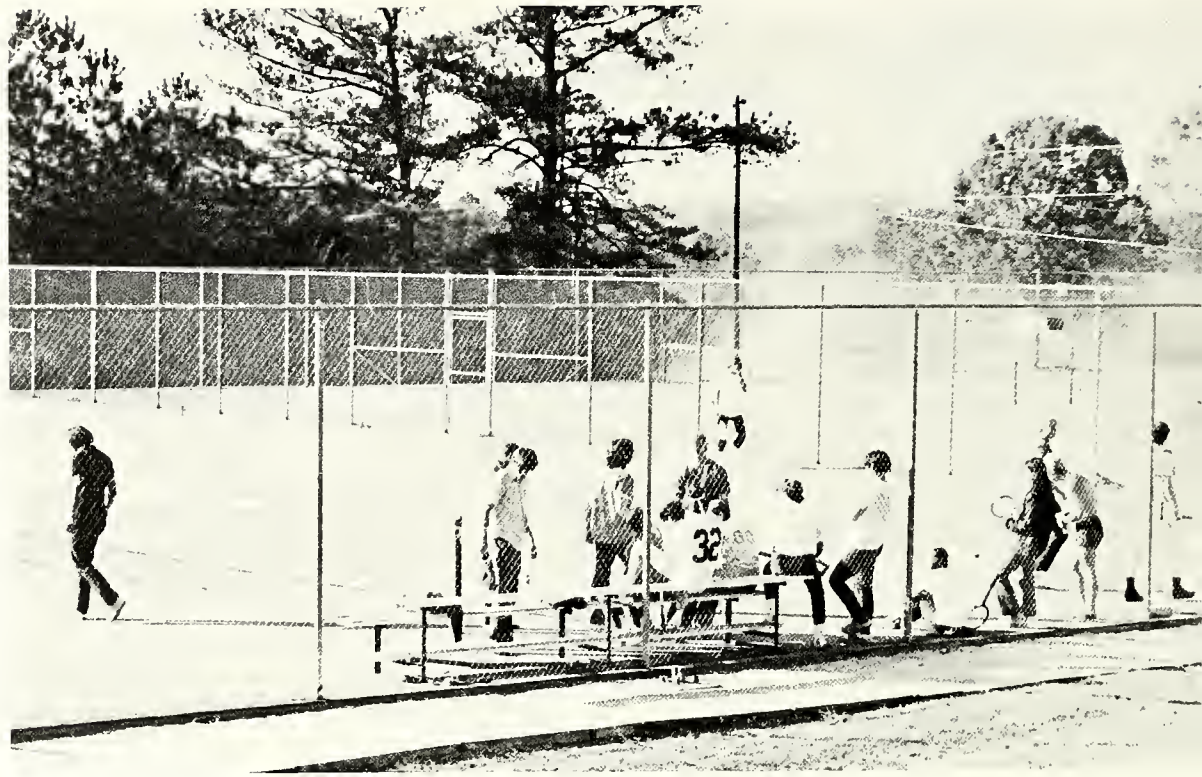

The Farm then proceeded to the championship game with Lambda Chi and came out the victor by a 17-7 score, thus making the Farm the 1971 men's intramural football champion.

According to coach Paul Jones, the men's intramural director, this year's football program was the largest ever in relation to student participation. Nineteen teams in three separate leagues took part in the sweat, the practice, and the sheer enjoyment of this memorable year of men's intramurals.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

The Student Government Association is the governing body of West Georgia College. Its primary purposes are to promote a high standard of conduct; to maintain a desirable atmosphere for intellectual growth and for social activity; to stimulate common understanding among students, faculty and administration to protect the individual rights of each student and to set forth the general principles that govern the student body. Through the efforts of the S.G.A. there have been many improvements in the policies of W.G.C. and an increased respect and understanding in the working relationships between the administration and students.

The West Georgia College Chamber Singers is a small ensemble of mixed voices which performs a great variety of music suitable for small choirs. They appear frequently on and off campus and in the past have made statewide television appearances as well. The group entertained the honored guests at a reception at the President's home during Dr. Pafford's inauguration in October. The second annual "Was-sail and Carols" program, a Renaissance—English style Christmas celebration, was held for three nights on campus in December. Other on-campus performances scheduled for the year include a program of Romantic and Contemporary music on March 2nd and an "Early Music" program on May 18th in conjunction with the West Georgia College Collegium Musicum, featuring choral and instrumental music of the Renaissance and early Baroque. Director of the group is Bruce Borton, instructor in music.

ALPHA PHI OMEGA

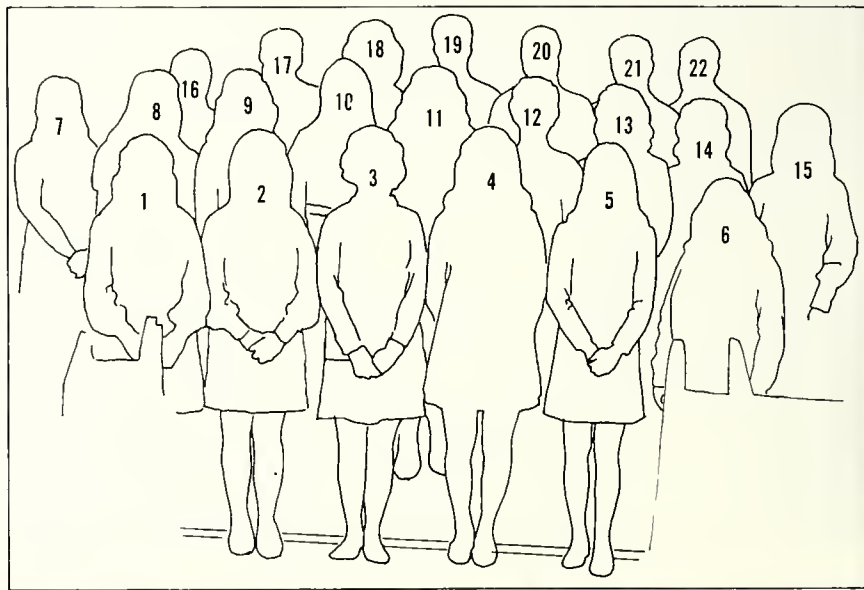

Alpha Phi Omega is the largest international service fraternity and is celebrating its 25th anniversary on the West Georgia campus. Many of the activities of the fraternity include sponsoring the V.D. Clinic, the Miss West Georgia Pageant, helping build playgrounds in the Carrollton and Bremen area, and collecting money for the Equilizer campaign.

WESLEY FOUNDATION

The Wesley Foundation strives to project the image of Christian fellowship and worship. There are events happening practically every night at the Methodist Student Center. The Wesley Foundation, to its members, stands for student involvement on campus. Activities are varied but the Wesley Foundation serves as a distinct nucleus for each member.

The WGC Judo Club organized during the summer of 1971 with support of black belts from Atlanta. During Fall registration 20 students registered for P.E. credit; 85 registered for Winter, 1972. West Georgia is the only school in Georgia to integrate Judo into its regular academic program for credit although increasingly this is being done across the nation. The WGC Judo Club is committed to Judo as a contact sport, to living-out its philosophy, and to greater knowledge about the Japanese culture from which it developed in 1882.

KARATE CLUB

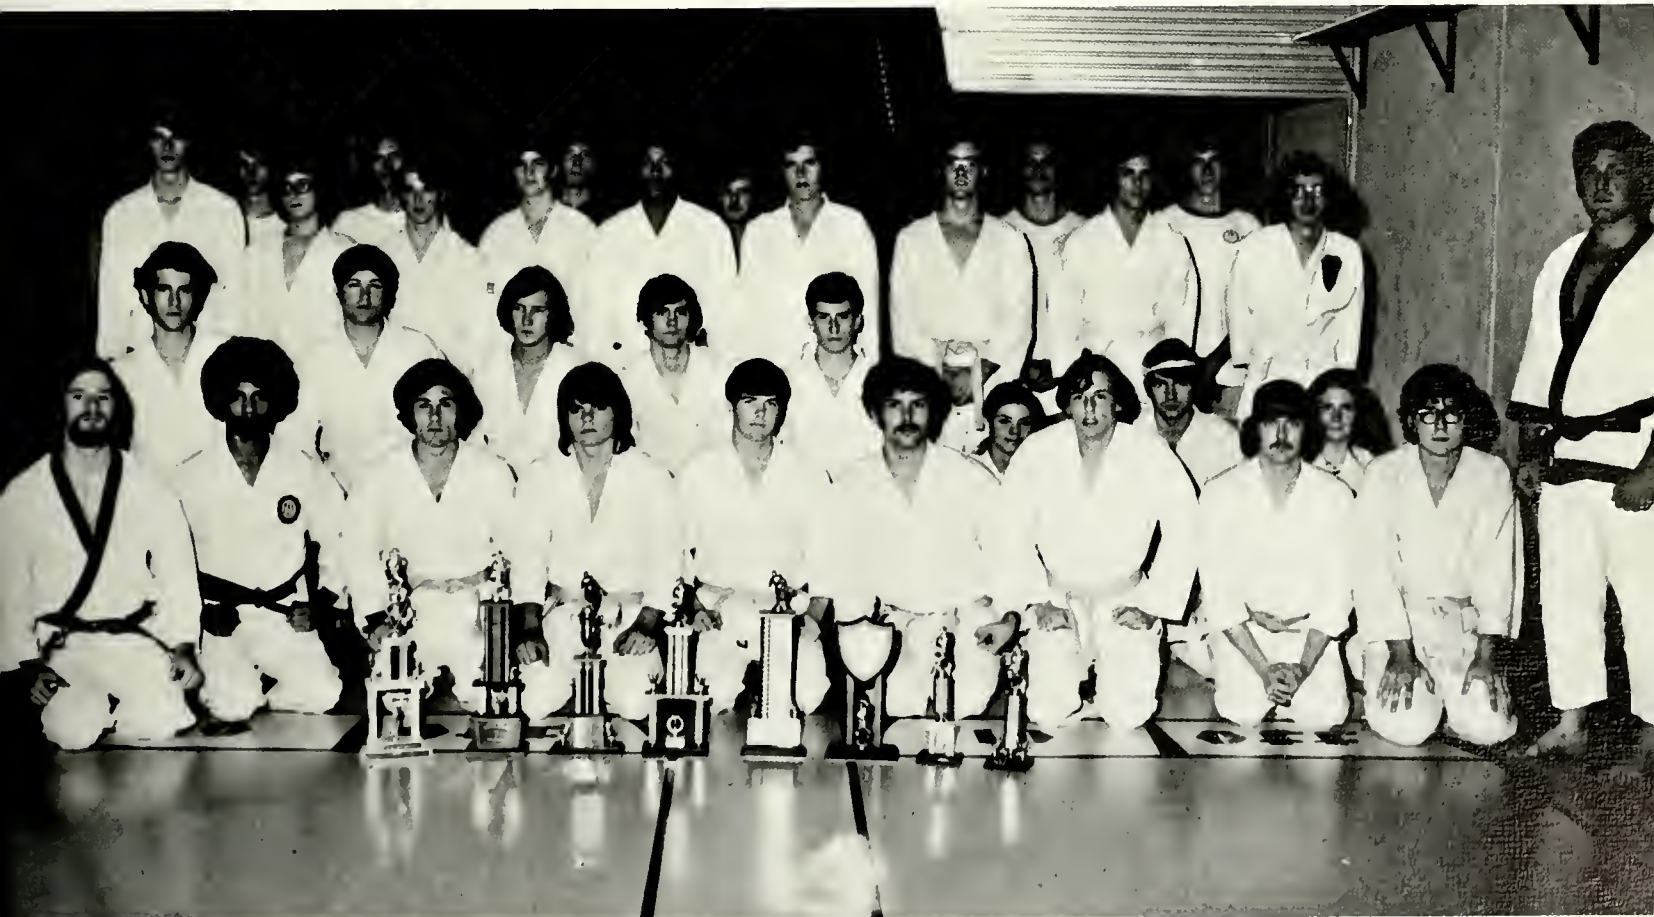

The West Georgia Karate Club was started in 1967. This year the club has taken on a new aspect as members may receive P.E. credit for two quarters. The club learns street and tournament fighting, the forms and breaking techniques. The students also learn history, anatomy, courtesy, control of body and mind, plus much more. Though the physical exercises are important so is the mental exercises for control, speed and general ability. Therefore, courtesy and meditation are always stressed.

The club attends clinics, gives demonstrations, participates in local, state, and national tournaments and hard weekly workouts.

Panhellic, meaning "all-Greek," is the governing body to which all sorority women belong. This organization provides a unity among sorority chapters and fosters interfraternity co-operation and understanding on the part of individual members. It also realizes the importance and necessity of mutual understanding and co-operation between the sororities and college administration and community. The Council is composed of two representatives from each of the five recognized sororities.

The Interfraternity Council is the unifying force for the fraternity system. The IFC is composed of two representatives and the president of each fraternity. The purpose of the organization is to be the governing body of all the fraternities and to give service. The IFC boosts the fraternity idea on campus. It accomplishes those things collectively that individual chapters cannot or should not be doing individually.

Alpha Gamma Delta is a sisterhood based on love and loyalty. Since Gamma Tau Chapter's installation on April 3, 1971, the sisters have kept these ideals in mind as they worked together on campus and off. Four very important people that have been just as much a part of the sorority are the Big Brothers, Tommy Sanders, Billy O'Dell, Larry Eng, Fletcher Anderson, and Beau, Steve Minor. Some of the activities of $\Delta\Gamma\Delta$ in 1971 were the first $\Delta\Gamma\Delta$ sweepstakes, the annual Toys for Tots campaign, first place in the Blood Drive, and winning the first $\Delta\chi\Delta$ sweepstakes, and the Homecoming parade. Of course the sisters remember the hard work behind the past successes and failures. As $\Delta\Gamma\Delta$ anticipates another year, she has evidence of the teamwork and enthusiasm that will always be hers, the Spirit Award for the 1970-71 Basketball season.

On May 29, 1971, Phi Kappa Chapter of Chi Omega Fraternity was installed on the West Georgia campus. The purposes of Chi Omega are friendship, high standards of personnel, scholarship, activities, vocations, and social and civic services. The fundamentals of Chi Omega center around friendship. Cardinal and straw are colors of the fraternity, and the white carnation is the flower. The mascot is the owl, which symbolizes scholarship.

Phi Kappa is active in campus as well as community activities. She has participated in such activities as the Equalizer, Walk for Mankind, and March of Dimes. Campus activities include ΔXA sweepstakes, ΣN All-Sings, and homecoming. As a special project for this year, ΦK has adopted a small child overseas.

On April 17, 1971, Delta Delta Delta was established from West Georgia's first local sorority Phi Sigma Delta. Being one of the largest national fraternities, the bonds of sisterhood extend to thousands of girls on campuses in the United States and Canada.

In the membership of Tri Delta, a girl is given unlimited opportunities to develop a stronger and more womanly character. Our memories are endless of the love shared among the sisters.

Tri Delta is renowned on the West Georgia campus for "Pearl's Palace," a roaring twenties skit, which has produced laughter, fun, and enthusiasm during rush and at fraternity houses. Along with the fun things, come serious work on the annual Cancer Drive, March of Dimes, and the Equalizer campaign. Raising money with doughnut sales and credit card insurance assures Tri Delta a capacity to contribute to scholarship funds and other worthy causes.

Kappa Delta's are bound not by a single vow but by continuing to add colors to the KΔ kaleidoscope. There is the spectrum of group activities: selling Buddy Poppies, parties for the underprivileged, rummage sale, a homecoming float, inter-sorority Hot Dog roast, rally time, banquets, KΔ Kapers, white rose week, wearing a garter, and gaining a diamond over your heart. Adding to the colors are sharing honors earned by us all: Best All-around sorority and Highest Scholastic average, 1971. By learning to love those in our small circle we learn to better understand the larger circle, the brotherhood of man. It all adds up in diamond, emeralds, and pearls, and in love AOT.

In November of 1970, Alpha Phi Rho Sorority became the Gamma Rho Chapter of Phi Mu Fraternity, thus becoming the first national fraternity on the West Georgia College campus. Like Alpha Phi Rho, Phi Mu is dedicated to the development of the individual as well as sharing a bond of sisterhood and friendship that leads to the fulfillment of common goals. Phi Mu is very active in community and school life. Many sisters participate and hold offices in clubs and organizations on campus. For the last two years, Phi Mu's have been elected homecoming queen and have been finalists in the Miss West Georgia Pageant. Every year Phi Mu's have supported the Hospital Ship S.S. Hope, our national service project. Phi Mu's work in day care centers in Carrollton. Being one of the oldest national women's fraternities, Phi Mu offers to any member-pledge, sister, alumni—a heritage rich in maning and sisterly love.

Alpha Tau Omega considers the Fraternity responsible for a positive contribution to the primary functions of the colleges and universities, and therefore under an obligation to encourage the most complete personal development of its members, intellectually, physically, and socially.

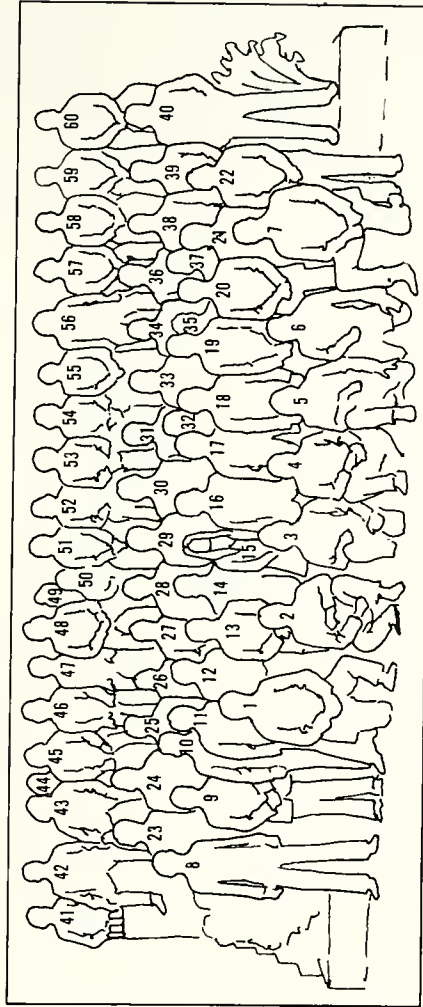

Alpha Tau Omega was the first Greek-letter college fraternity founded after the Civil War. It was founded at Richmond, Virginia, on September 11, 1865, and its first chapter was established at Virginia Military Institute, at Lexington, Virginia.

Eta Phi Chapter of Alpha Tau Omega was born at West Georgia College on November 13, 1971. Boasting a membership of some 70 men, ATO, through its involvement in campus and civic activities, seeks to fill its role as a media to a better life for its members, and all those persons who shall come to know of the friendship of the Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity.

Kappa Sigma Fraternity was first founded in Bologna, Italy in 1400. Brought to the U.S. in 1869, it was an initiator of today's inter-fraternity system across the nation. At WGC, Lambda Delta Chapter of Kappa Sigma Fraternity was the first colonized on 12 Dec. 1970 and the first national local fraternity installed on campus on 2 Apr. 1971, stemming from the first local fraternity at WGC, Sigma Alpha Omega which was founded 18 Jan. 1968. The chapter boasts many active interests extending from numerous athletic accomplishments to community/school service projects.

Socially, the chapter's colorful "luau" during Spring quarter has continued for five years to be the biggest annual fraternity activity at WGC. The chapter has great pride in it's tradition and maintains a high degree of success in it's yearly efforts. This was evident as the fraternities of the Inter-fraternity council presented the first "Most Outstanding Fraternity Award" to Lambda Delta for its service/achievement, both in the community and on campus. "The star and crescent shall not be worn by every man, but only by those deserving of it."

Lambda Chi Alpha started winter quarter of 1968 as the local fraternity Sigma Tau Delta, consisting of twenty seven members. We became affiliated with Lambda Chi Alpha in April of 1971, and have grown to a number of sixty brothers. Our house is located on Bremen highway, 3 and 1/2 miles north of Carrollton. Our strength is through our brotherhood and our brotherhood is accomplished by everyone working together for a common cause.

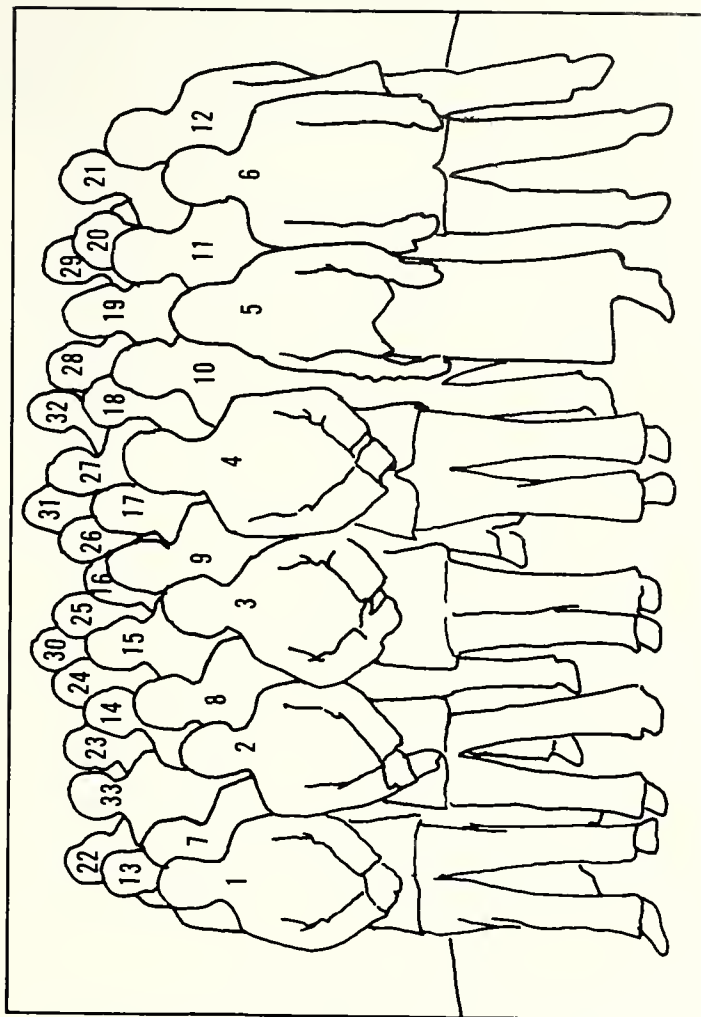

Established in January of 1968, the Cavaliers was the first social club to be established at West Georgia College. From the original 35 charter members of the Cavaliers has evolved the establishment of the Pi Kappa Alpha Colony on April 4, 1971. The colony now has 56 active members.

The purpose of Pi Kappa Alpha is the establishment of friendship on a firmer and more lasting basis; for the promotion of brotherly love and kind feeling; for the mutual benefit and advancement of the interests of those with whom we sympathize and deem worthy of regard.

The Pi Kappa Alpha house is located at 338 Maple Street.

During the past year the brotherhood of Sigma Nu has worked on the difficult requirements in order to obtain chapter status. The reward for these efforts will come on April 14 when National Headquarters will present West Georgia Colony with the coveted Sigma Nu Charter.

Our brotherhood now numbers 55 men and continues to grow each quarter. We are the current holders of the MIA All-Sports trophy and our advisor, Mr. Dan McBayer, was recently named West Georgia's 1972-73 Super Big-Chief.

Nationally chartered on June 6, 1971, Ki-Theta Chapter of Tau Kappa Epsilon is proud to be a part of the nation's largest social fraternity. Tau Kappa Epsilon is one of the largest fraternities on campus, stressing both academic and social achievements.

TKE maintains a lodge and 14 acres of land with three lakes located approximately five miles from campus. This gives the brothers the opportunity to escape the college atmosphere and enjoy the quiet of the woods.

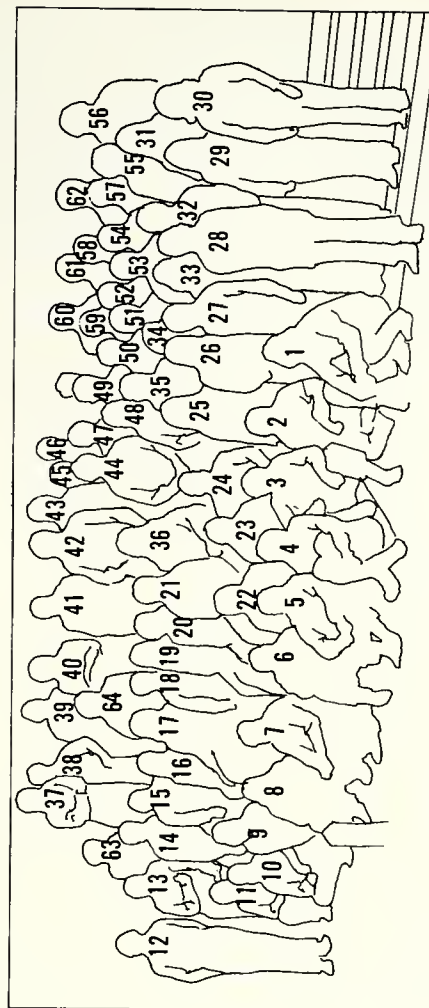

Being a TEKE is sharing the experiences and transitions of a growing fraternity; working together for the good of the fraternity, college, and community; and being an individual with the right to express individual desires and grievances.

"Not for wealth, rank, or honor but for personal worth and character, Tau Kappa Epsilon stands for men."

In late September, 1971, the Club of the Chi Phi Fraternity was formed by four freshman at West Georgia. From there the group went to 12 members, then eventually to its greatest membership of 28.

In February of 1972 the group achieved colony status upon recognition by the school and the Chi Phi Fraternity. As soon as colony status was achieved, the group began to apply for its charter from the Chi Phi Fraternity.

Chi Phi's goals are to achieve a strong brotherhood between all the members; uphold high academic standards; serves the community and the school in as many ways as possible; and most of all to take ourselves further along the road to wisdom and understanding.

FACULTY

Who are these people anyway? Emerging from their book lined cubicles for two or three hours a day, they pass on their legacy of scholarship and wisdom to all their bright-eyed, inquisitive disciples, students thirsty for the cup of knowledge they offer.

Are they machines, computers who compile exam scores and deliver profound lectures entitled, "The Significance of Tea Leaves in the Psychological Development of 17th century Mongolia?" Or are they super fiends who spend hours contriving tortures for the innocent student?

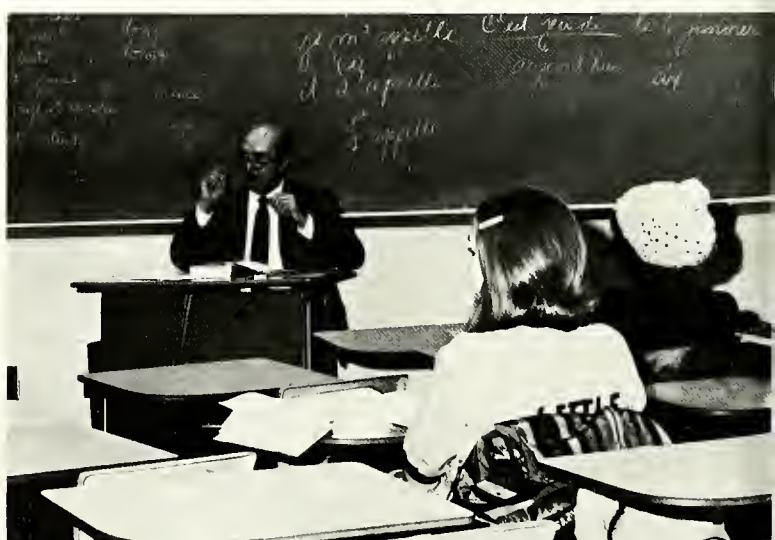

No, every indication would have it 80% or more are human, or at least semi-human. Most go home to families at night, and some are said to walk and talk without the benefit of electrical energy. They worry about taxes and losing their jobs. They even smoke and drink and do all the other naughty—but fun-things that the rest of us do.

They include all the stereotypes from the perential English professor who finds sex in every poem ever written, to the ever popular absent-minded professor who smokes the chalk and writes on the board in cigarette ashes.

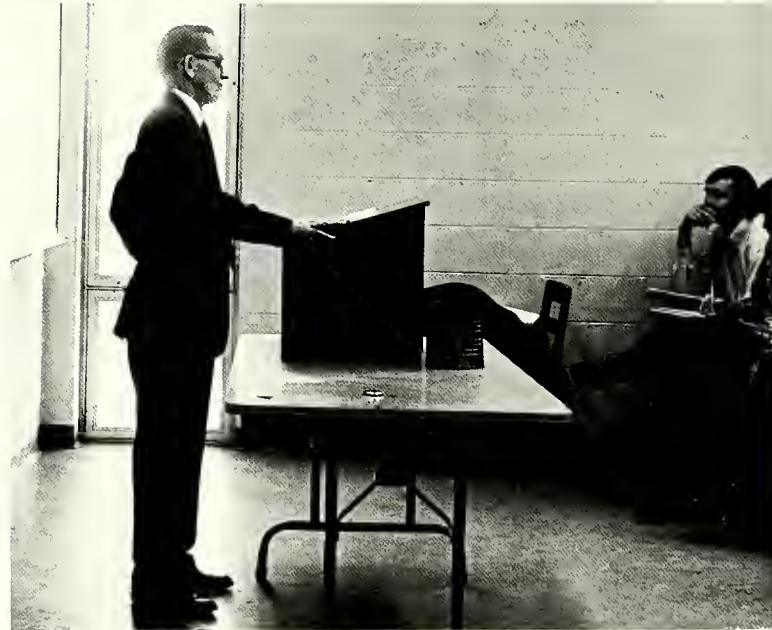

Some are liberal or even radical! While others would feel quite at home in the Reichstag. A few retain the virtues of their former days as that ideal human being, the student.

Some are friends and confidants, generous noble, selfless souls dedicated to the advancement of knowledge and humanity—Some are none of the above.

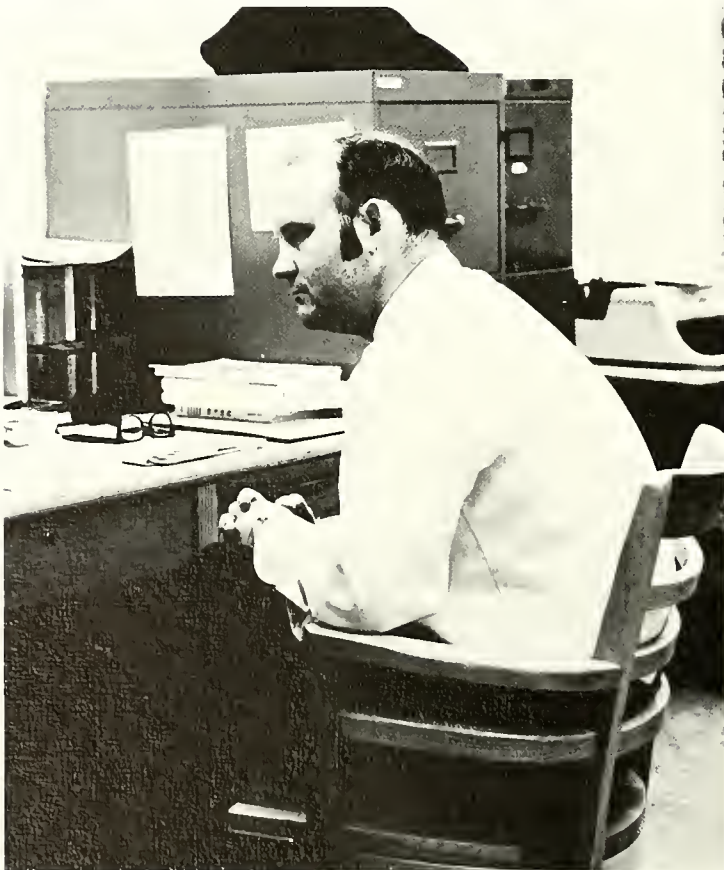

Such is the faculty that we all know and love and hate!

I've been wanting that Johnny Cash tape for months!

"Find the cost of freedom, buried in the ground,"
-Stephen Stills-

what if cohabitation is against the law in Georgia?

. . . the time tunnel . . .

. . .I've been shaving for two years, cut myself both times. . .

We don't know, use your imagination. . .

"Eat your heart out, Dylan!"

"I luv rock 'n' roll. . ."

West Georgia is AN Equal Opportunity Institution!?

“...and the sign said long haired freaky people need not apply. . .”
“Signs”

Why should we be in such desperate haste to succeed, and in such desperate enterprises?

If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer.

Let him step to the music which he hears, however measured or far away.

Henry David Thoreau
